Export division

At Mana Al Khaleej General Trading, our export division is built around one clear principle: customer-focused solutions. We don't just export products; we provide tailored trade services that align with the unique requirements of each client and each market. With our flexibility, international expertise, and strong supply chain, we ensure that every shipment is reliable, competitive, and customized to meet your expectations.

Our Export Portfolio Includes:

— High-Performance Lubricants

Exported in bulk, packaged form, or under your brand/private label if required. From passenger car motor oils to heavy-duty lubricants and industrial oils, we provide quality-engineered solutions backed by international standards.

— Tomato Puree

Available in various packaging options to suit retail or food service needs. We also support custom branding and labeling, ensuring that our partners can confidently distribute under their own identity in their local markets.

— Automotive Filters

Oil, air, and fuel filters designed for durability and engine protection. We supply both generic brands and customer-specific labels, giving distributors flexibility to market products under their own portfolio.

— Industrial Gloves

Manufactured to meet global safety standards, with options for different materials, coatings, and packaging formats. We can also provide OEM/private label services, helping customers expand their product lines seamlessly.
